During my academic career and through a previous internship, I have developed a strong foundation in administrative functions and an adeptness with the Microsoft Office suite, particularly Excel, which I understand is vital for generating production reports and spreadsheets. These experiences have honed my ability to manage and reconcile documents, an essential skill for the responsibilities outlined in the job description.

I am particularly drawn to the dynamic nature of the production assistant role at Olymel, which requires a blend of administrative expertise and the ability to respond swiftly to inquiries and tasks as directed by the Production Manager.
